POLICE SCOTLAND

Police in Edinburgh are appealing for the public's help as part of an investigation into the sexual assault of two women, which took place in the Little France area.

The first victim, aged in her thirties, was assaulted around 3.45pm on Thursday 21st February. The second incident took place shortly before 2pm on Friday 22 February, when a woman in her fifties was attacked.

Detective Inspector Graham Grant of Edinburgh's Public Protection Unit: "These incidents are being treated as linked and a thorough investigation is underway, which includes an increase in high visibility patrols to the area.

"The suspect is described as a white man, in his twenties, around 5ft 4ins tall, of stocky build with long brown hair, and was carrying a pink rucksack.

"Anyone with information about these incidents, or who may recognise the description of the suspect, is urged to come forward immediately."

Those with information can contact Police Scotland on 101, quoting incident number 2179 of 22nd February, or report this anonymously to the charity Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.

Always dial 999 if you see a crime in progress or a suspect is nearby.

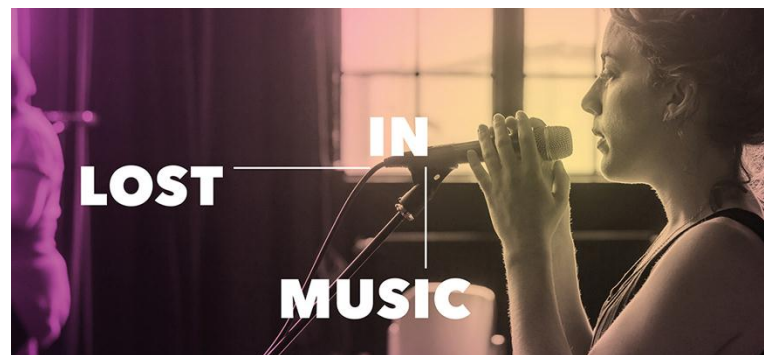

NORTH EDINBURGH ARTS CENTRE

Lost in Music Fri 1 March 7.30pm and Sat 2 March 2pm

North Edinburgh Arts, 15a Pennywell Court, Edinburgh EH4 4TZ

Lost in Music is a new theatre show about the power of music. In a studio, a band is working on music inspired by an ancient Greek myth: the story of a talented musical couple's journey to hell and back. The tale is told with the voices of young musicians, telling us what music means to them and how it is important to their lives.

Special £3 ticket price for readers of News and Events in NW Locality. To book, go to www.ticketsource.co.uk/north-edinburgh-arts, choose the full price ticket option and on the next page, use discount code LOVEMUSIC.
